FRAMEWORK FOR UNIT BASED EMPLOYEE BENEFIT SCHEME

Applicability

- 17A. (1) The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable for all unit based employee benefit scheme introduced on or after the date of this chapter coming into force:

Provided that the provisions pertaining to disclosure requirements in this chapter shall apply to any unit based employee benefit scheme introduced prior and subsisting as on the date of this chapter coming into force.

(2) For unit based employee benefit scheme introduced prior to this chapter coming into force, any unit acquired or any unit based employee benefit options granted by any employee benefit trust after the date of this chapter coming into force, shall be in compliance with this chapter.

Nature of scheme and implementation of scheme through trust.

17B. (1) The unit based employee benefit scheme shall be in the nature of employee unit option scheme.

(2) Any offer of a unit based employee benefit scheme by the manager shall not result in any additional cost to the REIT, its HoldCo and SPV.

(3) The unit based employee benefit scheme shall be implemented through a separate employee benefit trust which shall be created by the manager.

(4) The manager shall ensure that the trust deed under which the employee benefit trust is formed contains provisions as specified in Part A of Schedule X of these regulations.

Manner of receiving units by the employee benefit trust.

17C. (1) The employee benefit trust may receive units of the REIT in the following manner for the purpose of offering unit based employee benefit scheme:

(a) The manager may receive the units of REIT in lieu of management fees, through the employee benefit trust, only for the limited purpose of providing unit based employee benefit on such units;

Explanation. – For the above purpose, the manager may take full or part of the management fees in the form of units of REIT.

(b) A shareholder of manager may transfer full or part of the units of REIT held by it to the employee benefit trust;

Provided that in case a sponsor is also a shareholder of the manager, then sponsor group and associate of the sponsor may also transfer full or part of the units held by them to the employee benefit trust;

- (c) The manager may transfer full or part of the units of REIT held by it to the employee benefit trust;

Explanation. – For the purpose of clauses (b) and (c), any transfer of units to the employee benefit trust shall be irrevocable and without any consideration in return i.e. shall constitute a gift to the employee benefit trust.

- (2) Subordinate units shall not be eligible for being transferred to the employee benefit trust or being made part of a unit based employee benefit scheme.

- (3) The cash accumulated by the employee benefit trust on account of distributions received on units of the REIT held by such trust, income earned on the assets held by the employee benefit trust and receipt of exercise price from the employees of the manager on exercise of options, may be used by the employee benefit trust for acquiring units of the REIT either from the secondary market or during any fresh issuance of units by the REIT only for the purpose of using such units for unit based employee benefit scheme.

- (4) The employee benefit trust may subscribe to the units of the REIT subject to compliance with the minimum lot for primary market transaction specified under these regulations.

Secondary acquisition.

- 17D. (1) The employee benefit trust shall not be used as a mode for trading in units of the REIT.

- (2) Secondary acquisition in a financial year by the employee benefit trust shall not exceed two per cent of the total outstanding units of the REIT as at the end of the previous financial year.

Explanation. - “secondary acquisition” means acquisition of existing units of the REIT by the employee benefit trust on the platform of a recognised stock exchange for cash consideration for the purpose of unit based employee benefit scheme.

- (3) The total number of units under secondary acquisition held by the employee benefit trust shall at no point of time exceed five per cent of the total outstanding units of the REIT as at the end of the financial year immediately prior to the year in which the unitholders approval is obtained for such secondary acquisition:

Provided that the above ceiling limit shall exclude the units that are allotted to the employee benefit trust by way of a new issue or gift.

(4) The manager shall obtain approval of unitholders for secondary acquisition as per sub-regulation (6) of regulation 22 of these regulations.

(5) The employee benefit trust shall be required to hold the units acquired through secondary acquisition for a minimum period of six months.

(6) The employee benefit trust shall disclose the period during which it plans to undertake secondary acquisition, in advance of at least seven working days (excluding the date of intimation and the date of start of such period), to the recognised stock exchanges and the depositories.

(7) The employees of the manager shall not sell units of the REIT held by them during the period referred in sub-regulation (6).

(8) The manager shall submit a list of its employees to the depositories along with relevant details of the employees including their Income Tax Permanent Account Number, in advance of at least seven working days (excluding the date of intimation and the date of start of the period during which the employee benefit trust plans to undertake secondary acquisition).

(9) The depositories shall impose lock-in on the holdings of units of REIT by such employees and the lock-in shall be released after the period during which the employee benefit trust plans to undertake secondary acquisition, as disclosed to the recognised stock exchanges and depositories has elapsed.

Manner of allotment of units to the employee benefit trust by the REIT.

17E. (1) A manager of any REIT that allots units to the employee benefit trust in lieu of management fees shall ensure the following:

- (a) obtaining the approval of unitholders as per sub-regulation (6) of regulation 22 of these regulations before issuance of units to the employee benefit trust;
- (b) issuance of units to the employee benefit trust only once in a financial year, within ninety days after the completion of the annual valuation exercise;
- (c) issuance of units to the employee benefit trust in compliance with the guidelines for preferential issue of units specified by the Board;

- (d) allotting such units of REIT directly to the employee benefit trust so that these units are used exclusively for unit based employee benefit scheme.

Role of nomination and remuneration committee.

- 17F. (1) The nomination and remuneration committee of the manager shall be responsible for the administration and superintendence of the unit based employee benefit scheme.
- (2) The nomination and remuneration committee shall formulate the detailed terms and conditions of the unit based employee benefit scheme which shall include the provisions as specified in Part B of Schedule X of these regulations.
- (3) The nomination and remuneration committee of the manager shall frame suitable policies and procedures to ensure compliance with all securities laws particularly the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Fraudulent and Unfair Trade Practices relating to the Securities Market) Regulations, 2003 by the manager, its directors, its key managerial personnel, sponsor, recipients of units under the unit based employee benefit scheme, employee benefit trust and trustee of the employee benefit trust.

Variation of terms of the scheme.

- 17G. (1) The manager may vary the terms of the unit based employee benefit scheme offered pursuant to an earlier resolution of the unitholders but not yet exercised by the employees, if such variation is not prejudicial to the interests of the employees.
- (2) The manager shall obtain the approval of unitholders as per sub-regulation (6) of regulation 22 of these regulations for variation of the terms of the unit based employee benefit scheme.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulation (1), the manager may vary the terms of the unit based employee benefit scheme to fulfil any legal or regulatory obligation without seeking unitholders' approval.
- (4) The explanatory statement to the notice for passing a resolution for variation of terms of a unit based employee benefit scheme and the resolution proposed to be passed by the unitholders shall disclose complete details of the variation, the rationale therefor, details of the employees who are beneficiaries of such variation and information as specified in Part C of Schedule X of these regulations or as otherwise specified by the Board.

(5) The manager may reprice the options which are not exercised, whether or not they have been vested, if the scheme was rendered unattractive due to fall in the price of the units in the stock market:

Provided that the manager shall ensure that such repricing is not detrimental to the interests of the employees and approval of the unitholders has been obtained for such repricing as per sub-regulation (6) of regulation 22.

Listing.

17H. (1) In case a new issue of units is made under any unit based employee benefit scheme, units so issued shall be listed immediately on all recognised stock exchange(s) where the existing units are listed, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) The scheme is in compliance with these regulations;
- (b) A statement, as specified in Part D of Schedule X of these regulations, is filed and the manager obtains an in-principle approval from the recognised stock exchange(s);
- (c) As and when an exercise is made, the manager notifies the concerned recognised stock exchange(s) as per the statement as specified in Part E of Schedule X of these regulations.

Trustee of the employee benefit trust.

17I. (1) The trustee of the employee benefit trust shall be a trustee registered with the Board under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Debenture Trustees) Regulations, 1993.

(2) The trustee of the REIT shall not act as the trustee of the employee benefit trust.

(3) The employee benefit trust or its trustee shall not be eligible to vote on account of the units of the REIT held by such trust.

Insider trading norms.

17J. (1) The provisions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Fraudulent and Unfair Trade Practices relating to the Securities Market) Regulations, 2003 shall be applicable to the manager, its directors, its key managerial personnel, sponsor, recipients of units under the unit based employee benefit scheme, the employee benefit trust and trustee of the employee benefit trust.

(2) The relaxations and exemptions provided under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 in relation to employee stock option scheme shall mutatis-mutandis apply to the unit based employee benefit scheme offered in accordance with this chapter.

(3) The trading window restrictions specified under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 shall not apply in respect of issue of units by the REIT to the employee benefit trust, in lieu of management fees, for providing unit based employee benefit in accordance with this chapter.

Other requirements.

17K. (1) The units held by the employee benefit trust shall be used only for the purpose of offering unit based employee benefit scheme.

(2) The employee benefit trust shall not undertake any transfer or sale of units of the REIT held by it except for providing unit based employee benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(3) The units of the REIT transferred to the employee benefit trust shall be locked in by the depository and shall be released by the depository only for the transfer of units to the employees of the manager as per the unit based employee benefit scheme.

(4) There shall be a minimum vesting period of one year for unit based employee benefit scheme.

(5) The unappropriated inventory of units which are not backed by grants, acquired through secondary acquisition by the employee benefit trust, shall be appropriated within a reasonable period which shall not extend beyond the end of the subsequent financial year, or the second subsequent financial year:

Provided that the extension upto the second subsequent financial year shall be subject to the approval of the nomination and remuneration committee of the manager.

(6) No unit based employee benefit scheme shall be offered unless the disclosures as specified in Part G of Schedule X of these regulations are made by the manager to the prospective option grantees.

(7) The manager implementing unit based employee benefit scheme shall follow the requirements including the disclosure requirements of the Accounting Standards prescribed by the Central Government in terms of section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 including any 'Guidance Note on Accounting for employee share-based Payments' issued in that regard from time to time.

(8) The manager granting options to its employees pursuant to a unit based employee benefit scheme shall be free to determine the exercise price subject to conforming to the accounting policies specified in sub-regulation (7) of this regulation.

(9) The manager shall ensure that the explanatory statement to the notice prepared for convening a meeting of unitholders to obtain their approval for a unit based employee benefit scheme and the resolution proposed to be passed by the unitholders contain the information as specified in Part C of Schedule X of these regulations or as otherwise specified by the Board.

(10) The cash accumulated by the employee benefit trust shall be deployed in liquid assets, which shall be unencumbered.

(11) The unitholding of the employee benefit trust shall be shown as “non-sponsor and non-public” unitholding for the purpose of disclosure to the recognised stock exchanges.

(12) In case of change in manager, the outgoing manager shall no longer receive management fees or units in lieu of management fees from the REIT and accordingly shall not offer any fresh unit based employee benefit scheme based on the units of such REIT.

(13) In case of change in manager, the employee benefit trust of the outgoing manager shall sell and/or dispose off the units held by it within six months from the date of change of the manager.

Disclosures.

17L. (1) The manager shall disclose details of the unit based employee benefit scheme being implemented in the Annual Report of the REIT, as specified in Part F of Schedule X of these regulations.

(2) The manager shall include the value of options granted under a unit based employee benefit scheme as a part of its employee compensation and shall disclose the same in the Annual Report.]

26ZH. (1) The obligations of the post-issue merchant banker(s) with respect to all matters relating to post-issue, including refund, allotment, payment of interest to applicants in case of delayed allotment or refund, shall be as per the disclosure in the scheme offer document.

(2) The post-issue merchant banker(s) shall regularly monitor redressal of investor grievances relating to post-issue activities such as allotment, refund, etc. in such manner as may be specified by the Board.

(3) The post-issue merchant banker(s) shall ensure that advertisement giving details relating to oversubscription, basis of allotment, number, value and percentage of all applications, number, value and percentage of successful allottees for all applications, date of completion of dispatch of refund orders or instructions to Self-Certified Syndicate Banks by the Registrar, date of dispatch of certificates and date of filing of listing application, etc. is released within ten days from the date of completion of the post-issue activities on the websites of the SM REIT and designated stock exchanges, and in all the newspapers in which the pre-issue advertisement was released, if applicable.

(4) The post-issue merchant banker(s) shall ensure that SM REIT, its advisors and brokers, and other persons connected with the issue do not publish any advertisement stating that issue has been oversubscribed or indicating investors' response to the issue, during the period when the public issue is still open for subscription by the public.

(5) The post-issue merchant banker(s) shall continue to be responsible for post-issue activities till the subscribers have received credit to their demat account or refund of application moneys and the listing agreement is entered into by the SM REIT with the designated stock exchange and listing or trading permission is obtained.

Delisting of units

26ZI. (1) The investment manager shall apply for delisting of units of the scheme of the SM REIT to the Board and the designated stock exchanges if, –

(a) the per cent. of units held by the public in the scheme of the SM REIT falls below the limits specified under sub-regulation (2) of regulation 26ZF;

(b) there are no projects or assets remaining under the scheme of the SM REIT for a period exceeding six months:

Provided that the period may be extended by further six months, with the approval of unitholders in the manner as specified in regulation 26ZM;

(c) the Board or the designated stock exchanges require such delisting for violation of the listing agreement or these regulations or the Act or in the interest of the unit holders;

(d) the investment manager and trustee requests such delisting and such request has been approved by unit holders in accordance with sub-regulation (10) of regulation 26ZM;

(e) unit holders apply for such delisting in accordance with regulation 26ZM.

(2) The Board and the designated stock exchanges may consider such an application for approval or rejection, as may be appropriate, in the interest of the unit holders.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in sub-regulation (1) of this regulation, the Board, instead of requiring delisting of the units, if it deems fit, may provide additional time to the SM REIT or parties to the SM REIT to comply with regulations.

(4) The Board may reject the application for delisting and take any other action, as it deems fit, under these regulations or the Act for violation of the listing agreement or these regulations or the Act.

(5) The procedure for delisting of units of scheme of the SM REIT including provision of exit option to the unit holders shall be in accordance with the listing agreement and in accordance with procedure as may be specified by the Board and by the designated stock exchanges from time to time.

(6) The investment manager of scheme of the SM REIT shall sell the assets of the scheme in order to redeem the units of the unitholders for the purpose of delisting of units of the scheme of the SM REIT and shall wind up the scheme of the SM REIT, in such manner as may be specified by the Board.

(7) If all schemes of SM REIT are delisted, the SM REIT shall surrender its certificate of registration to the Board and shall no longer undertake activity of a SM REIT:

Provided that the SM REIT and parties to the SM REIT shall continue to be liable for all their acts of omissions and commissions committed prior to the surrender of the certification, with respect to activities of the SM REIT or its schemes notwithstanding such surrender.

Valuation of assets.

26ZJ. (1) The investment manager shall ensure that valuer shall carry out the full comprehensive valuation of the assets of each scheme of the SM REIT on an annual basis, and submits its report to the investment manager within two months from the end of the financial year:

Provided that in case of any material development that may have an impact on the valuation of the assets of the scheme of the SM REIT, the investment manager shall require the valuer to undertake full comprehensive valuation of the property under consideration within two months from the date of such event.

(2) The investment manager shall ensure that the valuer is not an associate of the investment manager or trustee of the SM REIT and that the signatory to the valuation reports has at least five years of experience in valuation of real estate, and possesses such other qualifications, experience and track-record that the Board may specify from time to time.

(3) The investment manager shall ensure that the valuer, for the purposes of the valuation, undertakes a full comprehensive valuation of all assets, which shall also include physical inspection of each property of the scheme.

(4) The investment manager shall ensure that valuer, in its full valuation report, includes the disclosures as specified in Schedule V to these regulations.

(5) The net asset value of each scheme shall be required to be declared and disclosed to the recognized stock exchanges based on the latest valuation report as on March 31st and upon occurrence of any material development.

(6) The investment manager shall submit the valuation reports to the trustee, designated stock exchanges and unit holders within one working day from the receipt of such valuation reports.

(7) Prior to any issue of units to the public and any other issue of units in the scheme as may be specified by the Board, the investment manager shall require the valuer to undertake full valuation of the particular scheme of SM REIT assets and include a summary of the report in the scheme offer document:

Provided that such valuation report shall not be more than six months old at the time of such offer and no material changes have occurred thereafter.

(8) The investment manager shall ensure that no valuer undertakes valuation of the properties of the schemes of the SM REIT for more than four years consecutively:

Provided that the valuer may be reappointed after a period of not less than two years has elapsed from the date it ceases to be the valuer of the SM REIT.

(9) For any purchase of a new property or sale of an existing property, the investment manager shall require the valuer to undertake a full comprehensive valuation of that property.

(10) The investment manager shall ensure that the valuer does not value any assets, which it has valued within the preceding twelve months prior to the acquisition of the asset by the scheme of the SM REIT.

Explanation.– For the purposes of this sub-regulation, it is hereby clarified that nothing in this sub-regulation shall apply if the valuer had been engaged by the SM REIT for the acquisition or disposal of the asset that is to be valued.

Distributions.

26ZK. (1) With respect to distributions made by the scheme of SM REIT and SPV, the investment manager shall ensure, –

- (a) not less than ninety-five per cent. of net distributable cash flows of the SPV are distributed to the scheme of SM REIT subject to applicable provisions in the Companies Act, 2013:

Provided that the amount retained by the SPV shall be utilized only in such manner as may be specified by the Board from time to time;

- (b) hundred per cent. of the net distributable cash flows of the scheme of SM REIT shall be distributed to the unit holders;
- (c) the distributions are declared at least once in every quarter of the financial year and not later than fifteen working days from the end of the quarter;
- (d) the distributions are paid to the unitholders within seven working days of such declaration.

(2) If the investment manager fails to make payment within the said timelines, then the investment manager shall pay interest at the rate of fifteen per cent. per annum to the unitholders, for the delayed period and such excess interest shall not be recovered by the investment manager from the SM REIT in any form.

Related party transactions.

26ZL. The SM REITs shall not enter into any transaction with related parties including transactions for facility management and property management:

Provided that nothing in this regulation shall apply to payment of fees by the SM REIT to the investment manager and the trustee for carrying on the activities of the REIT.

Rights and meetings of unit holders.

26ZM. (1) The unitholders of the scheme shall have the right to receive distributions as provided for in the scheme offer document, subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) With respect to any matter requiring approval of the unit holders, –

- (a) a resolution shall be considered as passed when the votes cast by unit holders, so entitled and voting, in favour of the resolution exceed a certain percentage or criteria as specified in these regulations;
- (b) the unitholders of the scheme shall have the right to vote in any unitholders' meeting of that particular scheme of SM REIT;
- (c) in case the scheme of the SM REIT proposes to purchase a property or proposes to sell a property at a value which is greater than one hundred and five per cent. or less than ninety five per cent. of the value of property as assessed by the valuer respectively, approval from unitholders shall be required wherein votes cast in favour of the resolution shall be at least three times the number of votes cast, against the resolution;
- (d) the investment manager shall also provide the option to the unitholders to vote either by way of post or through electronic mode;
- (e) a notice of not less than twenty one clear days shall be provided to the unit holders:
Provided that a meeting of the unit holders of each scheme may be called after giving shorter notice, if consent, in writing or by electronic mode, is accorded thereto, by not less than ninety-five per cent of the unit holders of the scheme entitled to vote at such meeting;
- (f) no person who is interested in any transaction as well as associates of such person(s) shall vote on any matter related to that transaction;
- (g) investment manager shall be responsible for all the activities pertaining to the meeting of the unit holders of scheme, subject to oversight of the trustee:

Provided that in issues pertaining to the investment manager including change in the investment manager, removal of the investment manager, change in control of the investment manager, the trustee shall convene and handle all activities pertaining to conduct of the meetings of unit holders:

Provided further that in respect of issues pertaining to the trustee including change in the trustee, the trustee shall not be involved in any manner in the conduct of the meeting.

(3) An annual meeting of unit holders of each scheme shall be held at least once every year, within one hundred and twenty days from the end of financial year and the time between two meetings shall not exceed fifteen months.

(4) The investment manager or the trustee, as applicable, of the SM REIT shall conduct the meetings in accordance with the procedure as may be specified by the Board.

(5) The investment manager of a SM REIT may conduct meeting of unitholders of each scheme through video conferencing or through other audio-visual means.

(6) In the annual meeting of unitholders of each scheme, the investment manager shall place following matters before the unit holders for consideration of:

- (a) latest annual accounts and audit report of the SM REIT and its schemes, and a report on performance of the scheme of the SM REIT;

Part G - Disclosure Document

[See regulations 17K(6)]

A: Statement of Risks

All investments in units or options are subject to risk as the value of units may increase or reduce. In addition, the options /are subject to the following additional risks:

1. Concentration: The risk arising out of any fall in value of units is aggravated if the employee's holding is concentrated in the units of a single REIT.
2. Leverage: Any change in the value of the unit may lead to a significantly larger change in the value of the options.
3. Illiquidity: The options cannot be transferred to anybody, and therefore the employees cannot mitigate their risks by selling the whole or part of their benefits before they are exercised.
4. Vesting: The options will lapse if the employment is terminated prior to vesting. Even after the options are vested, the unexercised options may be forfeited if the employee is terminated for gross misconduct.

B: Information about the REIT

1. Business of the REIT: A description of the main objects and present business of the REIT.
2. Abridged financial information: Abridged financial information, for the last five years for which audited financial information is available, as specified by the Board from time to time. The last audited accounts of the REIT shall also be provided unless this has already been provided to the employee in connection with a previous option or grant or otherwise.

3. Risk Factors: Management perception of the risk factors for the REIT
4. Continuing disclosure requirement: The option grantee shall be provided copies of all documents that are sent to the unitholders of the REIT. This shall include the annual accounts of the REIT as well as notices of meetings and the accompanying explanatory statements.

C: Salient Features of the Scheme

This Part shall contain the salient features of the scheme of the manager including the conditions regarding vesting, exercise, adjustment for corporate actions, and forfeiture of vested options. It shall not be necessary to include this Part if it has already been provided to the employee in connection with a previous grant and no changes have taken place in the scheme since then. If the scheme administrator provides advisory services to the grantees in connection with the exercise of options or sale of resulting units, such advice shall be accompanied by an appropriate disclosure of concentration and other risks. The scheme administrator shall conform to the code of conduct appropriate for such fiduciary relationships.]
